

BANKRUPTCY BOOT CAMP REPRESENTING DEBTORS IN BANKRUPTCY

New and seasoned bankruptcy attorneys join us for a discussion on representing debtors in bankruptcy including:

- Managing client expectations
- Your role as the attorney and counselor for the debtor
- Mentorship
- Free resources
- Transparency – why is it important?
- Money – how do you get paid for your expertise?
- Help us with attendance and participation. Invite a fellow bankruptcy attorney.

Speakers include: Hon. John T. Gregg
United States Bankruptcy Court
Western District of Michigan

A. Todd Almassian
Keller & Almassian, PLC

Jeremy Shephard
USA Debt, Bankruptcy Attorneys

This is the first in a series of seminars that will also cover Chapter 7, Chapter 13, Subchapter V, and Effective written advocacy.

Date: February 27, 2025

Time: 1:00 – 3:00 pm, followed by happy hour mixer from 3:00 – 4:00 pm

Where: Warner Norcross + Judd

1500 Warner Building

150 Ottawa Ave. NW

Grand Rapids, MI 49503

Register: via email to clerk_miwb@miwb.uscourts.gov

Cost: $50 in advance (no payments will be accepted on site).

After payment for two seminars in the series, third is free.

Checks made payable to the Federal Bar Association can be sent to:

David Bevins

Rhoades McKee

55 Campau Ave. NW, #300

Grand Rapids, MI 49503

For Paypal instructions, contact Liz Von Eitzen at evoneitzen@wnj.com.